READING

Q1: Read the text and answer the following questions:

Tom: Who's the young man wearing the tunic? Is he your dad?

Kamal: No, it's my grandpa when he was a teacher. That's the traditional Jordanian costume. In the past, he didn't wear jeans, jumpers or jackets. He wore a tunic with long sleeves, called a thobe.

Tom: Oh, and what's that on his head?

Kamal: It's a kufiyyah that people wore as a headdress. The black thing around it is an agal. It's a headband that keeps the kufiyyah from falling off your head.

Did you know that some people still wear the traditional Jordanian costume?
