(12 marks)

The Amman International Book Fair is a renowned event which people visit from across the world. The event is organised by the Jordan Publishers Union with the Ministry of Culture and usually takes place at the Jordan International Exhibition Centre. The Centre has the capacity to have exhibits from around 4,000 publishers and around 150,000 people have visited the two-week event in recent years.

The prestigious event shows how important the publishing industry is to the country and how it can help improve society, as well as being able to make an international audience aware of Jordan's achievements in publishing. It also allows visitors to learn about the books and culture of around 20 other countries whose publishers take part in the Fair. The countries are from all over the world, including Saudi Arabia, Morocco, the USA, Canada, Italy, China and India.

At the Fair, you can see Arabic and international books on many different subjects, including children's books and poetry. Previous events have also included exhibitions on Islamic writing and works of art from different countries. There are also events for children such as storytelling and classes in calligraphy.

The Fair also remembers the Jordanian poet Mustafa Wahbi Al Tal, whose legacy is the beautiful poetry that Jordanians still enjoy today, around 120 years after he was born.

Maitlda volunteered at a book fair last year. It was an awesome experience and I made a lot of interesting new friends.

Fred: There are so many brilliant books to buy. I save up to buy a ticket every year!

Habib: I went one year and it was very interesting, but too crowded.

Ali: It's true you have to queue a lot at a book fair, but it doesn't have to be boring. There are so many fascinating people to talk to.
